

SISTERS STARRY NIGHTS

Sisters Starry Nights was created in 1996, with its first concert in 1997, and has been instrumental in raising funds for the Sisters Schools Foundation. Co-founded by Jeri Fouts and Susan Arends, Starry Nights and its dedicated community volunteers and supporters have netted more than $1 million for Sisters schools through their concert series and special events, including performances by Lyle Lovett, John Hiatt, Vince Gill, Amy Grant, Keb' Mo', Kenny Loggins, Kim Carnes, Karla Bonoff, the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, Michael McDonald, Kathy Mattea, Gary Morris, Suzy Bogguss, Hal Ketchum and Lee Ann Womack. Equally importantly has been the involvement by these artists during their visits with various Sisters School District programs, and the inclusion of Sisters School District students in the artists' concerts and presentations. Sisters Starry Nights is a profound example of a community coming together for the betterment of its students and its students' experiences.
