

DR. SUSAN HYDE

Susan Hyde, PhD, defines the term “student-athlete.” Dr. Hyde is a 1996 graduate of Sisters High School. She was Valedictorian of the Class of 1996, and was a three sport star in track, cross-country, and basketball. She finished in the top 20 at the state cross-country championships during each of her SHS years (with a high of 6th the same year the team finished 3rd), was All-League on the basketball court, and went to the state track championships in multiple events (at one time holding the school records in the 800, 1500, and long jump Dr. Hyde then continued her education at Linfield College on a Trustee’s Scholarship, and was Political Science Student of the Year. She earned her Masters and Doctorate degrees at the University of California, San Diego, has authored an extensive array of articles and books, and has been the recipient of numerous grants, awards, and fellowships, including fellowships at the Brookings Institution in Washington, D.C. and at Princeton. Dr. Hyde is an expert on international election observation, election fraud, and democracy promotion and, since 2006, has been a professor of Political Science and International Affairs at Yale University. At Yale, Dr. Hyde teaches classes in international relations and comparative politics, including both undergraduate and graduate courses.

OUR TEAM - OUR TOWN - OUR TRADITION
SISTERS SCHOOL DISTRICT