

1999 SISTERS HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM

The Sisters High School Fall 1999 3A State Championship Football Team was destined to become state champion. The team not only represented the school and community in a very positive way, the players and coaches firmly entrenched the Sisters football program as an Oregon powerhouse. SHS had won the state championship during fall 1998, and had the ominous challenge to repeat the following fall. During its undefeated fall 1999 championship run, the team took out two future NFL quarterbacks - beating Scappoose High School in a very competitive game (33-27) and then rolling over Burns in the final (35-6). When the dust settled, this team featured ten 1st team All-State players (three both offensively and defensively), the coach of the year in Bob Macauley, the defensive player of the year in Eli Pyke, and the offensive player of the year in Dusty Macauley. The team was filled with experience and athleticism. All of the first team all-state players were seniors among a senior-laden team. Their work ethic and commitment to excellence was matched only by their true love of the game and the will to win, capturing the entire community's support - the team and the town were both "lights out" on game day. This team served as an inspiration for future Sisters' football teams and players.
