

AUDREY TEHAN

Audrey Tehan (SHS Class of 2007). Student, Athlete, Nonprofit Organizer. While at SHS Audrey loved exploring all school opportunities. She excelled on the soccer pitch (three-year captain, first team all-district, Oregon State Select Olympic Development Team), on the track, and on the Nordic ski team (state champion relay team). Audrey also received numerous academic excellence awards and was an enthusiastic I.E.E. Intern. These programs guided her to volunteer in Nepal with the local nonprofit, Ten Friends, as well as returning to volunteer with I.E.E. any chance she could. Audrey first attended Whitman College (starting on the soccer team) and graduated from Southern Oregon University (Environmental Studies degree with focus areas of Politics and Conservation Biology). Returning to Sisters in 2012 she continued her community involvement as SHS soccer coach (three-time league coach of the year) and as an I.E.E. volunteer. In 2013, Audrey launched the Sisters-based nonprofit organization, Seed to Table Oregon. The vision of Seed to Table is to provide equitable access to locally grown fresh foods and farm-based education to students and individuals in the Central Oregon community. The organization operates from a four acre organically operated farm, located in Sisters. From the farm, the Seed to Table team grows and distributes thousands of pounds of fresh vegetables to the community and hosts 1,000 students each year for educational opportunities. Audrey continues to serve as Seed to Table's Executive Director and stays engaged in the community in multiple capacities.
